

Alexandria Gazette

THURSDAY EVENING, AUGUST 29, 1878.

The Bishop of Sodor and Man and Mrs. Hill were driving towards Bishop's Court, in the Isle of Man, when they were subjected to a gross outrage. They were in an open carriage and passing Glen Ballagawane. Several navvies were standing at the roadside, and one of them, named John Girvin, took up a large stone and threw it at Mrs. Hill, striking her with violence on the head and inflicting a severe scalp wound. The coachman stopped, and the Bishop got out to secure the man, who escaped by jumping over a fence. The Bishop followed, and a chase ensued. Finding his pursuer closing upon him, Girvin told his Lordship that he had a knife in his pocket, and said that he would let him have it. At this time Mr. Harrison, of Peel, drove up, and the Bishop got into his carriage. They followed Girvin, who was hastening in the direction of Peel. He turned up a road near Ballagawane, still followed by them, and his Lordship observed him taking a knife out of his pocket and opening it with his teeth, also picking up a large club used as a break for stopping railway wagons. Mr. Harrison was about to rush at the man, to stop him, when the Bishop warned him to desist, as the fellow had an open knife in his hand. Presently two policemen arrived, and Girvin was apprehended. After Mrs. Hill had been struck the coachman drove her to the nearest cottage, where she had her wound, which bled a good deal, attended to.

Girvin was brought before the high bailiff of Peel on the twofold charge of assaulting Mrs. Hill and threatening to stab the Bishop. His Lordship attended and gave evidence, as did his coachman and others. Prisoner was committed for trial.

Mrs. Hill, although suffering from fright and excitement, is not seriously injured, but was not sufficiently well to attend the court.

ICE CREAM, SODA WATER, &c.

ICE CREAM.

My Ice Cream Manufactory, one of the largest in Virginia, still continues to supply private customers, Sunday schools, excursions, picnics, fairs, festivals and associations, as well as the trade, with the purest and best ICE CREAM, under a name in this community, and is known everywhere as BRENGLE'S ICE CREAM. I could easily reduce its price by lowering its quality, but good cream, of fresh, pure, wholesome ingredients, cannot be furnished at a less price than I serve it. Of course, I could "grade my cream by the price," but my cream would lose the good name that years of fair dealing have won for it. I ask that persons abroad ordering "Brengle's Cream" from third parties will assure themselves that the cream sent is certainly from my establishment, and that it is not cream, and do not wish that inferior cream, sent out as mine, may injure its reputation. It is my aim to furnish the BEST CREAM IN AMERICA, and my customers are satisfied that I do so. HENRY BRENGLE.
